We will discuss such issues as training models, continuing education, and professional liability. Later aspects of the course will focus on applied issues, including confidentiality, right to privacy, informed consent, therapeutic relationship issues, involuntary commitment and social responsibility. Special applications of clinical psychology to the medical and legal contexts will be discussed.

Course Requirements and Evaluation:
In a course such as this, consistent class attendance and participation are critical to the learning process. As such, performance in the course will include an evaluation of attendance and participation in the 11 topics covered during the course (0 = no attendance; ½ = attendance; 1 = attendance and participation). Students are expected to attend and participate on all topics to obtain maximal credit for attendance.

The second component of the course will be an open book examination on the ethics of Clinical Psychology. This examination will consist of a series of ethical dilemmas, for which the student must identify ethical concerns (if any), and state a course of planned action. This examination will take place in class on January 6, 2016. Computers and course notes may be brought to class for this examination.

The third component of the course will consist of 2 reaction papers to the material being read. Each reaction paper must be submitted at the beginning of the class on which it is relevant, and should describe your reactions to, thoughts about, or appraisals of the ideas in one or more of the readings for that class. Each reaction paper must be no longer than 3 double-spaced (12 pitch font, 1” margins) pages, inclusive of everything (no title page; no references). Each paper will be count 12.5% of your final grade. Both are required by the end of class on January 8, 2016.

The balance of the grade will be based upon a term paper of no more than 30 typewritten double-spaced pages (consistent with the APA Publication Manual). The topic of the term paper will address a topic from this course, agreed to between you and the instructor. The term paper is due on April 8, 2016. Late papers will be accepted, but a penalty of 5% per day will be deducted from the final grade assigned.

Grades will be assigned no more stringently than the following:

- 96-100: A+
- 85-95: A
- 80-84: A-
- 75-79: B+
- 70-74: B
- 50-69: B-
- 00-49: F
As stated in the University Calendar, it is at the instructor’s discretion to round off either upward or downward to determine a final grade when the average of term work and final examinations is between two letter grades. To determine final letter grades, final percentage grades will be rounded up or down to the nearest whole percentage (e.g., 84.5% will be rounded up to 85% = A; 84.4% will be rounded down to 84% = A-).

Reappraisal of Grades
A student who feels that a piece of graded term work (e.g., term paper, essay, test) has been unfairly graded, may have the work re-graded as follows. The student shall discuss the work with the instructor within 15 days of being notified about the mark or of the item’s return to the class; no reappraisal of term work is permitted after the 15 days. If not satisfied, the student shall immediately take the matter to the Head of the department offering the course, who will arrange for a reassessment of the work within the next 15 days. The reappraisal of term work may cause the grade to be raised, lowered, or to remain the same. If the student is not satisfied with the decision and wishes to appeal, the student shall address a letter of appeal to the Dean of the faculty offering the course within 15 days of the unfavourable decision. In the letter, the student must clearly and fully state the decision being appealed, the grounds for appeal, and the remedies being sought, along with any special circumstances that warrant an appeal of the reappraisal. The student should include as much written documentation as possible.

Plagiarism and Other Academic Misconduct
Intellectual honesty is the cornerstone of the development and acquisition of knowledge and requires that the contribution of others be acknowledged. Consequently, plagiarism or cheating on any assignment is regarded as an extremely serious academic offense. Plagiarism involves submitting or presenting work in a course as if it were the student’s own work done expressly for that particular course when, in fact, it is not. Students should examine sections of the University Calendar that present a Statement of Intellectual honesty and definitions and penalties associated with Plagiarism/Cheating/Other Academic Misconduct.

Academic Accommodation
Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. You are also required to discuss your needs with your instructor no later than 14 days after the start of this course.

Absence From A Test/Exam
Makeup tests/exams are NOT an option without an official University medical excuse (see the University Calendar). A completed Physician/Counselor Statement will be required to confirm absence from a test/exam for health reasons; the student will be required to pay any cost associated with this Statement. Students who miss a test/exam have up to 48 hours to contact the instructor and to schedule a makeup test/exam. Students who do not schedule a makeup test/exam with the instructor within this 48-hour period forfeit the right to a makeup test/exam. At the instructor’s discretion, a makeup test/exam may differ significantly (in form and/or content) from a regularly scheduled test/exam. Except in extenuating circumstances (documented by an official University medical excuse), a makeup test/exam must be written within 2 weeks of the missed test/exam during exam make-up hours provided by the department http://psychology.ucalgary.ca/undergraduate/exam-and-course-information#mues.

Travel During Exams
Consistent with University regulations, students are expected to be available to write scheduled exams at any time during the official December and April examination periods. Requests to write a make-up exam because of conflicting travel plans (e.g., flight bookings) will NOT be considered by the department. Students are advised to wait until the final examination schedule is posted before making any travel arrangements. If a student cannot write their final exam on the date assigned by the Registrar’s Office, they need to apply for a deferred exam. Under no circumstances will this be accommodated by the department.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act
The FOIP legislation disallows the practice of having student’s retrieve tests and assignments from a public place. Therefore, tests and assignments may be returned to students during class/lab, or during office hours, or via the Department Office (Admin 275), or will be made available only for viewing during exam review sessions scheduled by the Department. Tests and assignments will be shredded after one year. Instructors should take care to not link students’ names with their grades, UCIDs, or other FOIP-sensitive information.
